A shooting affray occurred at LaGrange Tuesday of last week, between two highly connected young men of the town, F. L. Caldwell and M. Conrath, which resulted in the death of the former.

The Presbyterian church is being re-papered and the work will be, in the main, completed this week. The pastor, Rev. F. R. Farrand, will conduct the usual services next Sabbath morning and evening.

J. H. Markey was arrested last week for violating the revenue law in selling Kirtley's "Appetizer" and brandy cherries. His trial took place at Hannibal Wednesday and we learn that he was fined a dollar and costs.

Every Old Soldier in the county should go to Nichols and get a pound of Hard Tax to show his friends what he lived upon for five years during the war long past. It will bring back to him many pleasant memories.

Uncle Jimmy Dodson had his wrist badly mashed while hauling wood, two weeks ago, by getting his arm caught between the standard of the wagon and a tree. Owing to neglect inflammation set in, and in addition to the great pain he has to endure, there is danger of losing his arm.

The Bald Knob district is making a commendable and successful effort to raise money to build a church house in that district, nearly the entire amount necessary has been subscribed. The building will be in charge of the M. E. organization, but when not occupied by them, will be open to all denominations.

The Q. M. & P. folks have ordered new locomotives, new passenger coaches and other rolling stock, all to be delivered by Jan. 1, 1888. At this date, it is said, another passenger train will be put upon the road. The report that we will have Sunday trains over the Q. M. & P. is not confirmed by the officials but is probably true.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crow, of Polk township celebrated their twenty fifth wedding anniversary an account of which reached the GRAPHIC office this week too late to publish the long list of handsome and useful presents, presented them by relatives and friends. About sixty persons were present. Mr. and Mrs. Crow are among our most estimable people, and all join in wishing them many years more of usefulness and happiness.
